

IRAQ VETERANS SPEAK OUT AGAINST WAR

Northern California tour
featuring Latino soldiers who publicly refused to fight in Iraq

ARMY STAFF SERGEANT
CAMILO MEJÍA

ARMY SPECIALIST
AGUSTÍN AGUAYO

NAVY PETTY OFFICER
PABLO PAREDES

CODEPINK

Sunday May 13

7 pm

San Francisco

Veterans War Memorial Building
401 Van Ness Ave., Room 207

Across from SF City Hall,
near Civic Center BART.

Wheelchair access.

Donation requested.

More info: 510-764-2073

Released from a military prison only a few weeks ago, Agustín Aguayo will explain for the first time why he chose jail instead of redeploying to Iraq. Camilo Mejía, author of Road from Ar Ramadi, was one of the first Iraq combat vets to resist redeployment. Pablo Paredes refused to ship out in support of the Iraq War at the San Diego Naval Station in 2005. Events feature various soldiers/speakers.

Wed., May 9 - Marin

Thurs., May 10 - Sacramento

Fri., May 11 - Stockton

Sat., May 12 - Carmel

Sun., May 13 - San Francisco

Mon., May 14 - Watsonville

Tues., May 15 - Palo Alto

Wed., May 16 - Eureka

Thurs., May 17 - Oakland

Fri., May 18 - Berkeley

For details: www.couragetoresist.org/events

Hosted by Courage to Resist, Veterans for Peace SF Bay Chapter, and local organizations: College of Marin Students for Social Responsibility, American Friends Service Cmte / Project VOICE, Organizacion de Trabajadores Agricolas de Calif., Asociacion de Braceros del Norte de Ca., Comision Honorifica Mexicana Periodico Semilla, Hartnell Students for Peace, Salinas Action League, Women's Int'l League for Peace & Freedom, SF Codepink, GI Rights Hotline & Draft Alternatives program of the Resource Center for Nonviolence, Santa Cruz Peace Coalition, Watsonville Brown Berets, Veterans for Peace Santa Cruz Chapter, Peninsula Peace & Justice Center, Alternatives to War through Education Youth Action Team

Help end the war—Support the troops who refuse to fight!